

Request for Nominations

2018 Governor's Awards for the Arts

YOU ARE INVITED

On behalf of Governor Tom Wolf, the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts invites you to submit nominations for the 2018 Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's Governor's Awards for the Arts.

Nominations must be postmarked by February 12, 2018.

HISTORY

The Governor's Awards for the Arts are a Pennsylvania tradition, inaugurated in May of 1980, and represent the commonwealth's highest recognition for contributions in the arts. The honorees reflect the excellence and variety of Pennsylvania's cultural landscape and the awards pay tribute to the commonwealth's rich cultural achievements and notable philanthropic traditions.

The 2018 Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Governor's Awards for the Arts will be presented in a public state ceremony in August.

AWARD CATEGORIES

Distinguished Arts Award

Recognizing a living Pennsylvania artist of international fame, leadership, or renown, or a world class Pennsylvania institution whose creations enrich the commonwealth and its citizens. To be eligible, an artist must have been born in or have significant contacts with Pennsylvania. (Past recipients of the Governor's Awards for Excellence in the Arts or the Distinguished Pennsylvania Artist Award are not eligible.)

Patron Award

Recognizing a patron's significant contributions to the vitality and availability of the arts in Pennsylvania. Generally, to be eligible, individual patrons must be living and reside in Pennsylvania.

Arts Leadership & Service

Recognizing an individual or organization for outstanding arts leadership and service. Nominations should detail how the nominee's actions have made a measurable impact, changed things for the better for the arts and cultural community, or created significant benefits. The impact of nominated individuals can be within the context of the state, region, community, artistic discipline, or arts field.

Artist of the Year (The Hazlett Memorial Award)

Recognizing a living individual artist for her or his creations and contributions to the excellence of the arts in Pennsylvania. To be eligible, the artist must currently reside and work in Pennsylvania, but need not have been born in Pennsylvania. (Past recipients of the Hazlett Memorial Award or Artist of the Year Award are not eligible.)

ELIGIBILITY & SELECTION

Recipients are selected from nominations that are reviewed and recommended by an advisory panel. Recipients will be notified following their selection and must agree to receive the award in person.

The Pennsylvania Council on the Arts (PCA) is a state agency in the Office of the Governor. Its mission is to foster the excellence, diversity, and vitality of the arts in Pennsylvania and to broaden the availability of those arts throughout the state. Funding for the PCA comes from the citizens of Pennsylvania through an annual state appropriation and from the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency. For more information about the PCA's programs, visit arts.pa.gov.
