

Town Meeting 2011: Philadelphia 1

In the coming years how can participation in and support in the arts be expanded in your area?

Rogers

Capacity Building	Money	Technology	Inclusion	Advocacy	Engagement (A.I.E.)	Leadership	Local Focus
Cross-marketing & collaboration	Money	Support changes in technology	Diversity in programming	Promoting arts advocacy in youth	Programs for young people	Board training	>More rural arts programs
Bartering services & skills	Streamline application process again (smiley face)	social media research	Promote diversity in all arts	Rebranding: Art (doesn't equal) Luxury	Fund free tickets for kids	Succession planning (many arrows)	Increased county-wide support
Matchmaking for sharing	Clarification on the use of Title I funds	funds to update technological infrastructure eg: set design software	Physical accessibility to arts for disabled	Power of the Arts as economic Driver	>More (smiley face) parent/kid programs	Engage corporate leaders	Incentivize staying local
Becoming self-sustaining	Bring back artist fellowships		Cross pollination of disciplines	Better promotional marketing of programs outside the arts	More on-going arts education curriculum	Empowering local arts in decision-making	Arts Mobile
Develop volunteer corps	arts impact fee		Partnerships for transportation	Awareness campaign for arts	Engage all youth in arts		Build more performance space in Delaware County
			Connect with Historical community	Promote value of arts education/participation Communicate	Tap into personal artistic practices		City-wide thematic events
			"Kill" the Parking Authority		Engage Educate Audiences

PCA structure follows trends not politics