CALL FOR LETTERS OF INTEREST Creative Communities Initiative (2023 Round)

The Pennsylvania Council on the Arts (PCA), a state agency, supports the role of creative industries as vital to vibrant, livable communities.

PCA's Mission: To strengthen the cultural, educational, and economic vitality of Pennsylvania's communities through the arts.

PCA's Overarching Value - Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion: Promote equitable access for all Pennsylvanians to participate fully in a creative life and in the diverse forms of arts and culture in the commonwealth.

Creative Communities Program Purpose: The purpose of the Creative Communities program is to provide multi-year funding to community-driven, arts-based projects that serve as catalysts for livability, economic development, and community connectedness. Also called creative placemaking or placekeeping, the funded projects will have a demonstrated, positive impact on their respective communities.

Creative Communities Program Goals:

- Strengthen Pennsylvania communities through the arts.
- Ensure diversity, equity, and inclusion.
- Advance community recovery and resilience.
- Cultivate deep community engagement for innovative, community-driven projects.
- Promote the unique identities of PA's communities as places people want to live, visit, work, and play.
- Promote PA's communities as places people want to live, visit, work, and play.
- Support authentic, inclusive, and strong community partnerships.
- Promote inclusion of artists and culture bearers in community projects
- Support local leadership and develop future leaders.
- Foster development and implementation of sustainable programs and projects.
- Invest in creative industries projects.
- Leverage additional sources of funding (local government, private sector, foundation).
- Create and implement best practices for project evaluations.

Funding Amount: Up to $25,000 per year for up to four years.
